COURT'S PROBABLE CAUSE FINDINGS AND ORDERS

ORDER OF THE COURT:

- Court does not find probable cause to support a revocation, vacates any hearing dates, and returns the supervised person to supervision on the same terms and conditions. The supervising agency must notify the prosecutor, supervised person, and the supervised person's counsel (if any) of the dismissal.
- Court finds probable cause to support a revocation and summarily revokes supervision and tolls the running of the supervision period; Court appoints counsel.
- Bench Warrant to issue. Bail set at $ No Bail.
- Revocation Hearing is scheduled on _____ at 10:30 AM in the Banning Justice Center—Department B201.
- Arraignment is scheduled on _____ at 10:30 AM in the Banning Justice Center—Department B201.
- Probable Cause Hearing is scheduled on _____ at 10:30 AM in the Banning Justice Center—Department B201.
- Request to reinstate supervision on the same terms and conditions and dismiss petition is GRANTED. All future hearing dates are ordered vacated. If in custody, supervised person is ordered released on this case only. Supervising agency to provide notice to the prosecutor and the supervised person's counsel or, if unrepresented, the supervised person.
- Request to reinstate supervision on the same terms and conditions and dismiss petition is DENIED. All future hearing dates to remain.
- Request to terminate PRCS supervision and dismiss petition is GRANTED. All future hearing dates are ordered vacated. If in custody, supervised person is ordered released on this case only. Supervising agency to provide notice to the prosecutor and the supervised person's counsel or, if unrepresented, the supervised person.
