

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

Temporary Emergency Felony and Misdemeanor Bail Schedule

Approved by the
Judges of the Riverside County Superior Court
March 27, 2020

Effective Date: March 27, 2020, and will remain effective until further notice.

Note: This bail schedule was adopted in response to the recommendation of March 21, 2020 of Chief Justice of the California Supreme Court Tani Cantil-Sakauye, in which she recommended that individual counties:

"Revise, on an emergency basis, the countywide bail schedule to lower bail amounts significantly for the duration of the coronavirus emergency, including lowering the bail amount to $0 for many lower level offenses – for all misdemeanors except for those listed in Penal Code section 1270.1 and for lower-level felonies. This will result in fewer individuals in county jails thus alleviating some of the pressures for arraignments within 48 hours and preliminary hearings within 10 days."

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

Felony and Misdemeanor Bail Schedule

This Bail Schedule is adopted by the Superior Court of California, County of Riverside pursuant to Section 1269b(c) of the Penal Code and is to be utilized pursuant to Section 1268 et seq. of the Penal Code in setting bail for the release of persons arrested on charges, without warrant, for the alleged commission of any bailable offense, and for Writs of Habeas Corpus.

This Bail Schedule consists of two sections: (A) Bail for Felonies, and (B) Bail for Misdemeanors.

SECTION B: MISDEMEANOR BAIL SCHEDULE 12

SECTION A: FELONY BAIL SCHEDULE

PART 1: RULES

RULE 1: Setting Bail

- A. Bail for felony crimes will be set as follows:
0. '$0 bail' means that bail is not required in lieu of a signed written citation to appear. Failure to sign a cite to appear will result in bail being set pursuant to the court's non-emergency bail schedule.
 1. The amount set in the approved arrest warrant;
 2. The amount set pursuant to 1269c P.C. (See Rule 6(A) herein);
 3. The amount set at a hearing in court; and / or
 4. The amount set through use of this Bail Schedule.
- B. The Felony Bail Schedule consists of four parts:
0. The "Rules";
 1. The "General Bail Amounts Chart";
 2. The "Special Bail Amounts"; and
 3. The "Bail Amounts for Enhancements."
- C. Review all Rules. Review the "General Bail Amounts Chart" section. Review the "Special Bail Amounts" section. If the bail amount is different, the higher amount applies.
- D. To calculate bail on any one case, take the count which imposes the longest term of incarceration, find the bail amount from the "General Bail Amounts Chart" section. Check the "Special Bail Amounts" section. If there is a conflict, use the larger sum. Next, add bail for all enhancements. The calculation is per case. For example, if a person has three cases and the bail is $5,000 on one case, $75,000 on another case, and $25,000 on a third case, then the person must post three separate bonds, one for each case, in order to be released.

RULE 2: No Bail

Murder with special circumstances will not be admitted to bail if proof of guilt is evident or the presumption great.

RULE 3: Attempts, Etc.

The following felony offenses will have a bail amount equal to the substantive offense, which was the object of the conspiracy, solicitation or attempt.

Section 182 P.C. (Conspiracy)
Section 653(F) P.C. (Solicitation)
Section 664 P.C. (Attempt)

Note: 182/187 PC: The bail is $1 million, even if special circumstances are alleged.

Note: 32 PC: The bail is half the amount for the substantive crime, but no less than 10,000.

RULE 4: Multiple Counts, Multiple Cases

A. Multiple Counts:

1. For each separate crime arising out of the same set of circumstances, the single highest bail plus all applicable enhancements shall apply.
2. If the charges could be filed as separate cases, separate bail amounts apply and those amounts are to be added together to calculate the appropriate bail for the case filed.

B. Multiple Cases: Calculate the bail for each case separately. A separate bail is required for each separate case.

C. Examples:

1. Two Separate Complaints Filed: Defendant commits two robberies on two separate dates (two separate sets of circumstances) – the applicable bail amount for each of the robbery complaints would be calculated. These are two separate cases and two separate bail bonds are required.
2. One Complaint Filed: Defendant assaults one victim and later that day assaults a second unrelated victim (two separate sets of circumstances). The applicable bail amount for each incident is calculated. Then the two amounts are added together to determine the amount of bail.
3. One Complaint Filed: Defendant robs a pizza store and takes money from the register and from a customer's wallet. The bail is the amount for the most serious criminal charge plus bail for any enhancements.

RULE 5: Enhancements / Strikes

A. Enhancements:

Where a felony offense has been committed and it is alleged in the Complaint or Information, or it is evident from other information made available to the Court, that one or more punishment enhancements are applicable, the bail amount specifically described for each applicable enhancement shall be added cumulatively to the bail set forth for the specified offense. In the event that bail for the specified offense is $0, the amount of bail for any enhancement is still to be added to calculate the total amount of bail. (Example: If bail for a felony violation of Penal Code section 245(a)(1) is now set at $0, and if there is an enhancement alleged pursuant to Penal Code section 12022.7, then the total bail will be $40,000: $0 for the substantive offense + $40,000 for the enhancement = $40,000.) See Part 4, Bail Amounts for Enhancements to Felonies. For unlisted enhancements, see Part 2, The General Bail Amounts Chart.

B. Strikes:

Where it is alleged in the Complaint or Information, or it is evident from other information made available to the Court, that there is a strike prior within the meaning of Penal Code Sections 667 and 1170.12 the additional bail shall be calculated as follows:

- (1)(a) If the defendant has previously been convicted of one strike, the bail is enhanced by $50,000.
 - (b) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more strikes, the bail is enhanced by $50,000 per strike, if the current crime is a non-serious and non-violent crime.
 - (c) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more strikes, and the current crime is non-serious and non-violent, and, if any of the exceptions contained in section 667(e)(C)(2)(i-iv) apply, then the total bail is $1,000,000.
- (2) If the defendant has previously been convicted of two or more serious or violent felonies and the current crime is a serious or violent felony, then the total bail is $1,000,000.

RULE 6: Bail Increase / Source of Bail Funds

A. Bail Increase (1269c P.C.)

In the event that law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that the amount of bail set forth in the Bail Schedule is insufficient, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a 1269c P.C. declaration requesting an order setting higher bail. Once a copy of the 1269c P.C. form has been given to the booking officer, no one shall release the defendant except at the higher requested bail. The arresting officer then has eight (8) hours to obtain Magistrate approval. If no Magistrate approved 1269c form is provided to the booking officer within eight (8) hours of the initial booking, then the defendant may be released at the amount of bail as indicated by the Bail Schedule. Any Magistrate approved 1269c form must be filed with the Complaint.

B. Source of Bail Funds (1275.1 P.C.)

In the event that law enforcement has reasonable cause to believe that bail has been or may be obtained by felonious means, the arresting officer shall provide the booking officer at the custodial jail a copy of a declaration requesting an order pursuant to Section 1275.1 P.C. Once a copy of the 1275.1 P.C. form has been given to the booking officer, no one may release the defendant. The arresting officer has twenty-four (24) hours to obtain Magistrate approval. If a Magistrate approves the 1275.1 P.C. application, the defendant may not be released except upon the order of a Judge after a noticed hearing in Court. If no Magistrate approved 1275.1 P.C. form is provided to the booking officer within twenty-four (24) hours of the initial booking, then the defendant may be released upon whatever bail is set. Any Magistrate approved 1275.1 P.C. form must be filed with the Complaint or filed with the court if the complaint has already been filed.

RULE 7: Violation of Probation / Mandatory Supervision

Probation:

In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of felony probation shall be $50,000. In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of misdemeanor probation shall be $0 ~~$5,000~~.

Mandatory Supervision:

In the absence of a specific court order, the amount of bail on a violation of mandatory supervision shall be $100,000.

RULE 8: Economic Loss

~~If the alleged economic loss is greater than the bail schedule, the bail shall be the amount of the loss, rounded to the next higher thousand-dollar level; i.e., if the economic loss is $58,423, the bail is $59,000.~~
