

CHANGING YOUR ADDRESS WITH THE COURT

HAVE YOU MOVED RECENTLY?

Has the minor or conservatee's address been changed? If the answer is yes; you, as court appointed guardian or conservator, are required to notify the Court immediately by completing one or more of the following forms: GC-080, GC-079 or MC-040.

- ❖ If you have been appointed guardian of a minor child or conservator of an adult you are required to notify the court of any change of address for yourself and each minor or adult person for whom you have been appointed. Please refer to your "Duties of Guardian/Conservator" for more information.

FORMS CAN BE COMPLETED ON LINE AT:

<http://www.courts.ca.gov> - click on Forms & Rules, click on "Browse all Forms" click on "Forms Listed by Numbers"

- If you have already moved, you must complete form # GC-080.
- If you are planning to move, complete form # GC-079.
- To change your service address complete form # MC-040.

You cannot relocate the minor(s) or conservatee to another state without permission from the Court (see petition # GC-085).
