Court locations include Banning, Blythe, Hemet, Indio, Moreno Valley, Murrieta, or Riverside. Court's hours of operation and addresses are available through our website at <https://riverside.courts.ca.gov/GeneralInfo/LocationsParking/locations-parking.php>.

2 Requesting an Extension

You are entitled to one 90-day extension from the appearance date on your ticket.

- You may request an extension online, by mail, or through the Court's automated telephone system at 951-222-0384.
- You may request an extension online through ePay-it.com.

- Extensions beyond 90 days must be written to the court for review by a judicial officer. The written request may be submitted via eSubmit, Mail, or Email.

3 Asking for a court trial or Trial by Declaration if you believe you are not guilty.

Please review information found at www.riverside.courts.ca.gov/Divisions/Traffic/traffic.php for "Requesting a Court Appearance" and "Contesting Your Traffic Ticket" to learn more about requesting a trial date. Court appearances can be scheduled at <http://api.isd-corp.com/arraignments>.

WHAT IF I WANT TO PLEAD NOT GUILTY BUT I AM UNABLE TO GO TO COURT?

You may submit a Request for Trial by Written Declaration (Form TR-205) at the Clerk's Office or by mail on any infraction that does not require a mandatory appearance. Trial by Written Declaration can be requested by submitting the full bail amount and the trial by written declaration paperwork to the Payment Processing Center at 505 S. Buena Vista, Room 201, Corona, CA 92882. Please make checks payable to "Riverside Superior Court." Payments for Trials by Written Declaration may not be posted online. You will be notified of the Court's decision by mail.

PLEASE NOTE: Regardless of the manner in which trial is requested, you will be required to pay the full fine amount listed on your Courtesy Notice before a court trial will be scheduled. The money will be deposited in a trust account. The amount deposited will remain in the trust account pending the outcome of your trial. If you win your case, your deposit will be refunded. If you are found guilty, your deposit will be applied to the fine imposed.

For further information on preparing for court trials, please read the Questions about Court Trials found at <https://riverside.courts.ca.gov/Divisions/Traffic/traffic.php>

WHAT HAPPENS IF I DO NOT SHOW UP FOR COURT?

Pursuant to California Vehicle Code § 40903, if you fail to appear and/or address the matter before the Court (by personal appearance, in writing, telephonically, or via the Internet), the court may proceed without you. A Trial will be calendared with the Court and held in your absence. The court will send no further notice to you. If you fail to appear or show good cause why you did not appear, a civil assessment (fine) may be imposed against you in the amount of $300.00. The court may initiate a civil action against you, which may include a possible wage garnishment and/or lien against your property. In addition, the court will notify the Department of Motor Vehicles (Vehicle Code § 40509.5; Vehicle Code § 40002.1), which may result in the suspension of your driver's license and a hold on your vehicle registration.

4 WHAT IS THE ADVANTAGE OF GOING TO TRAFFIC SCHOOL?

Traffic School will keep the ticket and any points off of your DMV record. You are NOT eligible for traffic school if you have gone to traffic school for another ticket that you got in the last 18 months. You cannot go to traffic school for ineligible offenses listed in the California Rules of Court, rule 4.104.

If you are eligible, you can request traffic school in one of the following ways:

- By calling 951-222-0384.
- Online at ePay-it.com.
- By mail. Please send a check or money order made payable to Riverside Superior Court for the full amount of your fine plus the $59.00 Traffic School processing fee to:
Payment Processing Center, 505 S. Buena Vista Rm. 201
Corona, Ca. 92882
