NOTICE OF APPEAL AND RECORD OF ORAL PROCEEDINGS (LIMITED CIVIL – UNLAWFUL DETAINER)

This form may only be used to appeal a limited civil jurisdiction unlawful detainer case (with the exception of cases heard at the Southwest Justice Center). If your case was heard at the Southwest Justice Center, you must follow the California Rules of Court – Title 8.

You must file this form no later than 30 days after the trial court issued the judgment or order you are appealing (See rule 8.822 of the California Rules of Court for very limited exceptions). If your notice of appeal is late, the court does not have jurisdiction to hear your appeal and it will not be filed.

Fill out this form and make a copy of the completed form for your records.

You may fax file the Notice of Appeal form and all subsequent documents directly to the Appeals Department at no the charge. This method is strongly recommended to ensure the quickest processing and to avoid errors and delays. Visit court's website at <http://riverside.courts.ca.gov/> and select direct fax filing information under the forms and filing tab to obtain the fax number. A free file stamped copy of the documents will be returned to you if you fax file. You may also bring or mail the Notice of Appeal form and subsequent documents to the Appeals Department located at the Hall of Justice, 4100 Main Street, Riverside, CA 92501 for filing. Alternatively, these documents may also be filed at any courthouse within Riverside County. If you do not fax file and you would like a file stamped copy of the documents you are submitting, you must supply an extra copy to be returned to you. If you would like the copy mailed to you, you must also provide an envelope and correct postage.
