ORDER

- The court grants the request for reinstatement of programs; orders defendant to enroll in the aforementioned program(s) by _____
- and file proof of completion by _____ or appear in court on that date if proof has not been filed at least one week in advance of proof of completion date. If Defendant is on probation, the terms and conditions are ordered modified to include these orders. The court further orders that Defendant be given credit for any part of the program(s) previously completed.
 - Probation is extended to expire on _____ .
- The court denies the request for the following reason:
 - The request exceeds the number of reinstatements allowable by electronic request. Defendant is directed to add on to the court's calendar for a hearing date.
 - Probation has already been revoked. Defendant must personally appear in court.
 - The length of the program to be reinstated exceeds the time remaining on the term of probation and defendant has not consented to an extension of the probation term.
 - Other: _____
