EX PARTE REQUEST AND ORDER TO SET ASIDE DEFAULT
CASE NUMBER: _____

Petitioner requests the court set aside the default and allow the petitioner to file an amended petition and summons. The reason for my request is: _____

The petitioner declares as follows:

1. I have learned that I made some errors on the petition that I filed on _____. I need to correct those errors so that all issues in this case can be properly raised and this matter can be completed.
2. I request that the court set aside the default filed on _____ and allow an amended petition and summons be filed with the appropriate attachments.
3. I will have the respondent served with the amended petition and summons in a manner required by law. I understand that the respondent will have an opportunity to respond to the amended petition.
4. I have attached a copy of the proposed amended petition and summons to this request. I request that the original amended documents be filed immediately if this request is granted.
5. In the attached documents, I have made the following changes:

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the information above is true and correct.
