SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

GENERAL ORDER RE: PROBATION
DEPARTMENT SUPERVISION OF PROBATIONERS

ORDER NO.: 2020-59

In light of the COVID-19 pandemic, leading to health and safety concerns resulting in substantial operational impediments, and the state of emergency by federal, state and local officials, the Riverside Superior Court (Court) issues the following order to aid the Riverside County Probation Department in its continued supervision of probationers without the need for court appearances, which could potentially endanger the health and safety of all participants.

FOR GOOD CAUSE IS SHOWN, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Court authorizes the Riverside County Probation Department [hereinafter "Probation"], at its discretion, to extend the time to enroll and/or complete any programs which were ordered as a term and condition of probation. Probation is additionally permitted to direct the programs to accept the new enrollment and/or completion dates as if they were ordered by the Court. Should Probation extend such time to enroll and/or complete any programs, Probation is directed to notify, in writing, the Court, the Office of the District Attorney of Riverside County, and defense counsel of any new dates. Probation

ORDER RE: PROBATION DEPARTMENT SUPERVISION OF PROBATIONERS

1 is directed to develop a standardized form to be filed with the Court in order to provide
2 notice of the new dates.

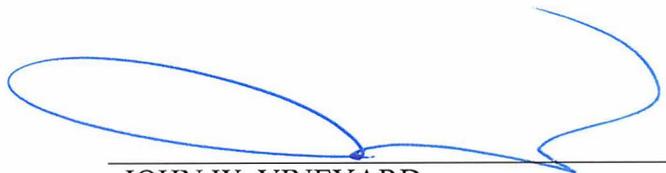

3 2. The Court authorizes Probation, in its discretion, to issue travel permits which permit a
4 probationer to leave the state or country without the need for a court hearing. This
5 provision does not supersede or otherwise negate any relevant provision of the Interstate
6 Compact of Adult Offenders Supervision.

7 3. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to set aside or vacate any alleged violation of
8 probation or active warrant that has been issued based on the defendant's failure to enroll
9 in or complete a court-ordered program.

10 This Order shall become operative immediately and shall remain in effect unless rescinded
11 by the Presiding Judge of the Riverside Superior Court.
