DECLARATION PURSUANT TO PENAL CODE 13300

INSTRUCTIONS: Use this declaration to request local summary criminal history information. PC §13300 defines “local summary criminal history information” as “the master record of information compiled by any local criminal justice agency pursuant to Chapter 2 (commencing with Section 13100) of Title 3 of Part 4 pertaining to the identification and criminal history of any person, such as name, date of birth, physical description, dates of arrests, arresting agencies and booking numbers, charges, dispositions, and similar data about the person.”

I, _____, am requesting local summary criminal history information for Defendant _____, from the Riverside Superior Court and declare under penalty of perjury that I am entitled to local summary criminal history information as part of my duties with/as:

- A court in the State of California.
- A law enforcement officer in the State of California, as defined in Section 830.1, subdivisions (a) and (d) of Section 830.2, subdivisions (a), (b), and (j) of Section 830.3, and subdivisions (a), (b), and (c) of Section 830.5.
- A district attorney in the State of California.
- A prosecuting city attorney of any city within the State of California, and/or City attorneys pursuing civil gang injunctions pursuant to Section 186.22a, or drug abatement actions pursuant to Section 3479 or 3480 of the Civil Code, or Section 11571 of the Health and Safety Code.
- A public defender or attorney of record when representing a person in a criminal case, or a parole, mandatory supervision, or postrelease community supervision revocation or revocation extension hearing, and when authorized by statutory or decisional law.
- A public defender or attorney of record when representing a person in proceedings upon a petition for a certificate of rehabilitation and pardon pursuant to Section 4852.08.
- Probation officers in the State of California.
- Parole officers in the State of California.
- Any agency, officer, or official of the state when the local summary criminal history information is required to implement a statute, regulation, or ordinance that expressly refers to specific criminal conduct applicable to the subject person of the local summary criminal history information, and contains requirements or exclusions, or both, expressly based upon the specified criminal conduct.

REQUESTING PARTY:	CASE OR CITATION NUMBER: (IF KNOWN)

- Any city, county, city and county, or district, or any officer or official thereof, when access is needed in order to assist the agency, officer, or official in fulfilling employment, certification, or licensing duties, and when the access is specifically authorized by the city council, board of supervisors, or governing board of the city, county, or district when the local summary criminal history information is required to implement a statute, regulation, or ordinance that expressly refers to specific criminal conduct applicable to the subject person of the local summary criminal history information, and contains requirements or exclusions, or both, expressly based upon the specified criminal conduct.
- The subject of the local summary criminal history information.
- Any person or entity when access is expressly authorized by statute when the local summary criminal history information is required to implement a statute, regulation, or ordinance that expressly refers to specific criminal conduct applicable to the subject person of the local summary criminal history information, and contains requirements or exclusions, or both, expressly based upon the specified criminal conduct.
- Any managing or supervising correctional officer of a county jail or other county correctional facility.
- Local child support agencies established by Section 17304 of the Family Code.
- County child welfare agency personnel who have been delegated the authority of county probation officers to access state summary criminal information pursuant to Section 272 of the Welfare and Institutions Code for the purposes specified in Section 16504.5 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.
- A humane officer appointed pursuant to Section 14502 of the Corporations Code, for the purposes of performing the officer's duties.

The court may charge a reasonable fee sufficient to cover the costs of providing information.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
