V. Magana

SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
FOR THE COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

In re the Matter of:
In Custody Clients

Blanket Order No. 5

ORDER GRANTING DEFENSE INVESTIGATORS ACCESS TO CLIENTS IN CUSTODIAL FACILITIES

Juvenile defense attorneys, which include public defenders, juvenile defense panel attorneys, and private counsel, employ agents to assist these attorneys in juvenile cases. These agents may include experts, social workers, paralegals, and investigators.

The court finds that it is necessary for these agents to have access to their clients in jail, prison, juvenile hall (or any delinquency placement), foster and group homes, schools, hospitals and private drug and alcohol rehabilitation facilities. These agents are to have access to these facilities, while taking into account the operational needs of the facility. These agents are to be allowed to conduct interviews in private, whether the client is a minor or adult, unless the client requests to have a parent or other support person be present during the interview.
